Who processes personal data for the KI-Denkraum and the other offerings of lennartgehl.com GmbH, where and on what basis. As of 9 November 2026; DPF status checked on 13 October 2026 in the list at dataprivacyframework.gov.

Part A is Annex 2 to the data processing agreement (kidenkraum.com/en/avv, § 7): the sub-processors for the data the provider processes on behalf of a Customer. The provider also uses the same services for processing under its own responsibility; the privacy policy (kidenkraum.com/en/datenschutz) states which. Part B names further service providers and recipients that concern only the privacy policy. The provider announces a new or replacing sub-processor at least 7 days in advance in accordance with § 7 of the DPA; a new AI model, a new version or a new function of a listed sub-processor is not such a change under the conditions of § 7(4). Every version of this list remains available under its date.
